SteelWorx™ Modular Desktop Organizers

Organize with style! Unlike fixed steel desktop organizers, SteelWorx™ lets you combine units to fit your specific needs. The components have been designed with the same base measurements so they can be stacked on top of each other to create a custom organizing system. An attractive perforated steel finish give a modern look to any office. Scratch resistant rubber feet protect desk surface and keep the unit from sliding when accessing drawers and files. Sold separately or in sets.
